

Into Africa

Home Learning Spring Term

This half term, we will carry on learning about Ancient Egypt and the geography of Africa. Each week you can choose at least one activity to complete and send it via the home learning email provided (homelearning@ourladyoffatimatrust.essex.sch.uk). You can choose any activity you like - they do not have to be done in a particular order. Have fun and keep learning!

- To continue to support your child's reading, please try to hear them read for 20 minutes each day.
- There are also weekly tasks for your child on Abacus, linked to the weekly maths learning done in school.
- Please also practise keys skills such as times tables and spellings on a regular basis to aid your child's security in this area.
