

Reflecting on the Gospel this week we considered what it is to be a 'witness to the light' and thought about the roles of John the Baptist and the angels.

Well done to all the students for sharing beautiful Carols and Readings from KS2 and nativity performances from KS1 and EYFS.

Thank you to all the staff in preparing these and to our families who supported them as well as also preparing and support our Santa at St Alban's event last Friday. This was so well attended and I thank you all for making the event so successful.
