

Pilate knew Jesus didn't deserve to die this way but he cared more about being popular than doing what was fair.

Are we like Pilate sometimes?

Do we make wrong choices because we want to be liked?

Lord Jesus, give us strength and courage to do what is right. Amen

On the cross I think Jesus was thinking "God help me to bear the agony of the sins of other people as I die on this cross today"

Dear Father, help me to follow in Jesus' footsteps

and try my best to not sin. Amen

This week was Laetare Sunday when the priest wears rose coloured vestments. It is a joyful day of hope in the middle of Lent. We reflected on this in our assemblies and it seems fitting that Brighten Up Day for CAFOD was also celebrated this week.

Our Chaplaincy Team lead the Stations of the Cross this week and wrote some lovely reflections for this. Two are shared above.

Car Parking Advisement: Our local community are being affected and are concerned about accidents happening. We do have use of the Church car park – which has an overflow car park too behind the hall and we have the soft start to stagger arrivals.

Stations of the Cross during Lent: If the weather is dry, please do join us for the Stations of the Cross which will be said outside on Thursday. Please come to the School Office for 9am. For other times to join the Stations of the Cross at our local Parishes, please do see the websites on the right of this newsletter.

Presentation of Children: Please do note ties must be worn with shirts (no polo shirts) along with school shoes (not trainers or boots). One pair of small studs (removed for PE) and a discrete bow in school colours (credit card size or smaller as a guide) may be worn. Other hair ties/accessories should be school colours. We have a nearly new uniform store that can be accessed at school or you can email the office. Donations are always welcomed for this.

Please note chewing gum is not permitted anywhere on the premises.

Do check the Parent Handbook for guidance on school matters.

Book Donations: We are welcoming book donations as we hope to hold a Book Swap Day for the children next term.

Book Author Anne Stairmand: Following our visit from the author Anne Stairmand last week books to buy are available via Arbor. Please see the e-mail sent out for more details.

Coffee Morning Fayre: We are busy starting to plan our next Coffee Morning Fayre for Friday 26th March at 8.45am from school drop off. Please save the date and let us know if there are any services or providers you would like to see there?

Breakfast and Afterschool Club: For the first time in a long period it has become necessary for our charges to increase on our extended provisions from April 2024.

Breakfast Club

Late Session new price will be £1.75

Early Session new price will be £4.00

Afterschool Club

Early Session new price will be £4.50

Late Session new price will be £9.00

'Easter Bunny': Colouring sheets are on sale after school outside the hall for your chance to win Easter Bunny. Colour the sheet in and give Easter Bunny a name! Each entry is £1, and the winner will be notified on the 28th March and get to take Easter Bunny home that day.

Tech Tips

E-Safety: Internet matters have guides for enabling Parental Settings on nearly every phone should you set this up. Here is the link Parental Controls on Smartphones & Other Devices - Internet Matters
